

This document describes Lex's cues.

Lex has owned several pool cues.

His first playing cue was a secondhand playing cue he got during his university days.

His second playing cue was a Pampanga made playing cue that his wife gave him as gift. Pampanga cues are high quality cues made in the Philippines.

His third playing cue is a Viking A244 playing cue. It is made in the USA. It has natural stain. It is made with curly maple. It has a double pressed Irish linen wrap. Viking quick release joint, with a V Pro shaft.

His fourth playing cue is a Poison Arsenic AR3-5 playing cue. It has a modern retro design. It is color brown and has a Uni-Loc joint. It has a ostrich pattern leather wrap. This cue is paired with two shafts: a Venom2 playing shaft and a 314-3 playing shaft.

His current playing cue is a Predator 9K01. It has a metallic black hard maple forearm. It has bold alternating Micarta and silver triple rings. This is his current favorite playing cue. It is paired with a Vantage shaft and a 314-3 playing shaft.

Lex also has an Action ACTBJ56 break/jump cue. It is made of hardrock maple. It has a linen wrap.

His current break cue is a Mezz Power Break Kai. It is paired with a Deep Impact 2 shaft.

He loves playing 10-ball, 9-ball, 8-ball and 15-ball rotation games.

This document describes Lex's guitars.

Lex had several guitars though the years. Below are the guitars that he can still remember.

His first guitar was a Yamaha junior nylon guitar. He studied classical guitar during his Grade 3 and has used this guitar.

He had an acoustic guitar from Cebu. It had a skill sticker in front.

He had a second nylon guitar that he used for classical guitar classes during Year-2 of his secondary school days.

He had another acoustic guitar during Year-4 of his university years. It was color blue.

He also had an RJ wireless acoustic/electric guitar.

He had a black bass guitar.

His wife gave him 2 guitars as gifts throughout the years. The first guitar was a Montana acoustic guitar. The second one was a Taylor GS Mini Mahogany acoustic guitar.